

Press release: HF Group, April 26, 2024

Together for more customer value.

HF Mixing Group and HF TireTech Group.

HF is pleased to inform that HF Mixing Group and HF TireTech Group from now on will operate under the umbrella of the HF Group with one joint management team.

The previous Co-CEOs of the two divisions Dr. Holger Rudzio, Zoran Uranjek, and Ian Wilson will form the joint management board in the future.

With this merger, HF will combine the strengths of both brands and the resources to improve global service for HF's customers. Additionally, the focus is on bringing together expertise and know-how to target and align technical innovations and the development of digital products and services to the market.

Together HF will fulfil the common customer requirements for HF's products in terms of quality, performance as well as sustainability and digitization. Common standards and values will ensure transparency in communication with HF's customers.
